

Daughter, Daughter, Daughter

Sora Park

November 24th - January 20th, 2024

Curated by Whess Harman

Exhibition Map:

1. Past (The wise mother cuts her rice cake perfectly in complete darkness), 2023
Styrofoam, joint compound, acrylic paint
2. Present (My mom and I), 2023
UV printed plexiglass, oak, acrylic paint
3. Future (Dog mom), 2023
Styrofoam, expanding foam, joint compound, acrylic paint

grunt gallery

#116 - 350 East 2nd Avenue

Vancouver, BC, V5T 4R8

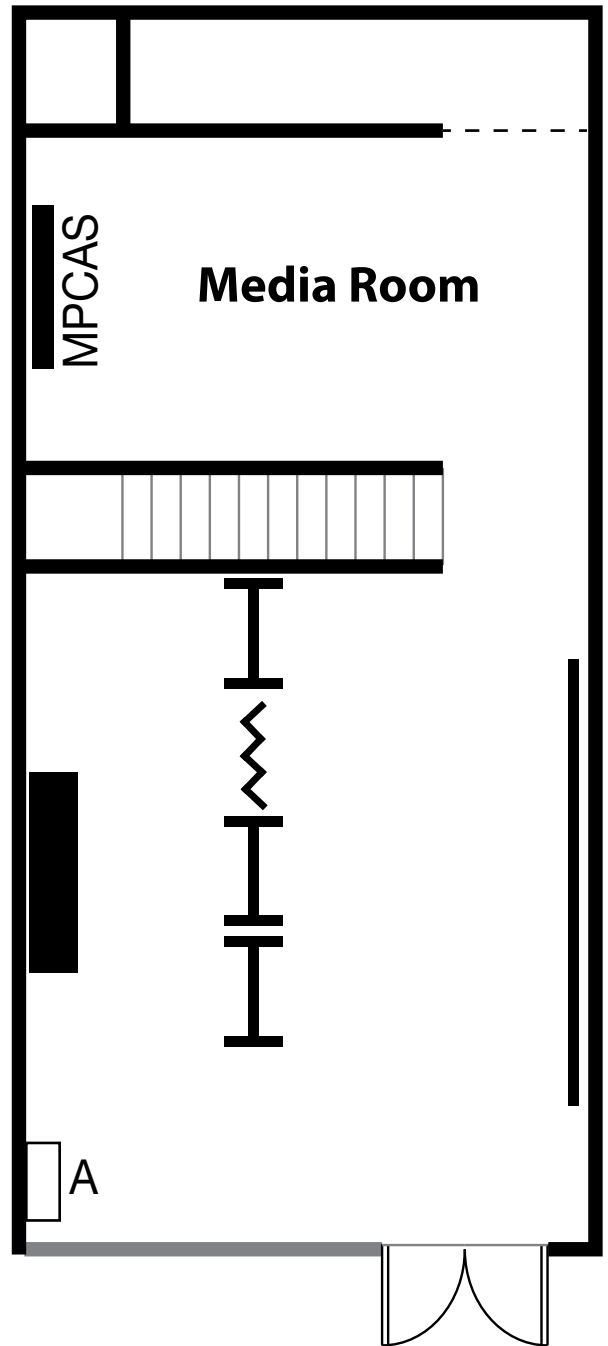

Phone: 604-875-9516

Hours: Tuesday – Saturday, Noon-5pm

Accessibility Notes:

- Artworks are not meant to be touched. This exhibition has tactile objects for Present and Future, and a tactile map, as well as written visual descriptions in the Exhibition Binder in English at the welcome station (A).
- A power outlet is also here (A).
- Masks are requested in the space, and a sanitization station (A) is available for handcleaning upon entry.
- A creative access tour is available in the orange carrying case to the left of the welcome station. You can carry this or pull out the small YOTO player and use your own headphones (A). A written transcript is available in the binder.
- Any questions or feedback are welcome at access@grunt.ca or by calling 604-875-9516.

Thursdays Low Sensory/Voice-Off Hours:

From Noon-5 PM, we will offer a low-sensory and/or voice-off experience to visitors wishing to visit the space and our exhibitions.

Goals: Scent-reduced, silent, with accessible resources.
Masks are required during Low Sensory visiting hours.
To learn more visit grunt.ca/low-sensory.