

SuperNova

RAH

Curated by Whess Harman and Vanessa Kwan

March 26th-April 30th, 2022

Exhibition Map:

1. SuperNova, 2018
Rah

Video with sound
(English captions)

Note:

Painted cubes are for sitting, leaning,
or placing your things!

grunt gallery

#116 - 350 East 2nd Avenue

Vancouver, BC, V5T 4R8

Phone: 604-875-9516

Hours: Tuesday – Saturday, Noon-5pm

Work Credits:

Rah, SuperNova, 2018.

Directed, written and performed by the artist.

“Native Melody” music created in collaboration with Kamyar Jarahzadeh.

Singing performed by Salma Attaran.

Pahlavi translation provided by Dr.

Miguel Ángel Andrés-Toledo.

Accessibility Notes:

- The exhibition light is low-light, and the performance installation is very sensory - flashing lights and theatrical sounds.
- Marquee is not meant to be touched, however, if you do, be wary of sparkles getting on your hands and clothing. There also exists a tactile maquette at the welcome station.
- A creative access tour of the show is available in the Exhibition Binder (in English).
- Masks are mandatory in the space, and a sanitization station is available for handcleaning upon entry.
- Video transcripts are available in exhibition binder (at entrance).
- Any questions or feedback are welcome at access@grunt.ca or by calling 604-875-9516.

